

BAYBERRY QUILTERS OF CAPE COD

Become a "Business Friend of Bayberry"

Bayberry Quilters of Cape Cod was formed in 1981 and had 15 people sign up for membership. Over the years that number increased steadily and today there are over 200 guild members from all over Massachusetts and many other states. Guild members take their civic responsibilities seriously by contributing to local charities and social service agencies. Every Monday Guild members and their friends gather together to make quilts for those in need. Recipients of those quilts are members of the Armed Forces returning home from Iraq and Afghanistan and hospitalized at Fort Belvoir in Virginia local aid organizations such as Habitat for Humanity, the Harwich Ecumenical Council, Lower Cape Outreach, A Women's Concern, families who have lost their homes to fire, and to those in need of the comfort a quilt offers.

Bayberry hosts their Quilt Show at the Cape Cod Regional Technical High School in Harwich. Attendees come from all over New England and other parts of the states, as well as Canada, to attend our show. Some visitors even plan their summer vacation to coincide with the show.

You can become a Business Friend of Bayberry for as little as $15.00. Your company's name will appear in our Annual Quilt Show Brochure where your business will reach a wide audience of locals and tourists. Your donation will help us continue our charitable efforts to those in need on Cape Cod.

Thank you for your support.
